

Tuesday 19th September

Dear families,

Whilst we don't yet have certainty about next week, you have told us that you have valued any updates we have been able to give you on progress. We do now know that a DFE commissioned survey will take place on Friday. I want to let you know the two most likely scenarios for next week.

Plan A:

If the DFE allow us, we will return to a normal on-site provision with all students returning on site at JMS from Monday 25th September.

	Year 7	Year 8	Year 9	Year 10	Year11	Year 12	Year 13
Monday 25.09.23	In school.					Return to JMF6 lessons being taught at both John Mason and Fitzharrys sites with students moving between sites as required.
Tuesday 26.09.23
Wednesday 27.09.23
Thursday 28.09.23
Friday 29.09.23

Plan B:

If we are not given full access our main school building, we will continue with a mixture of on-site learning and working from home as follows:

	Year 7	Year 8	Year 9	Year 10	Year11	Year 12	Year 13
Monday 25.09.23	In school.	Working from home.	Working from home.	In school.	In school.	All JMF6 lessons continue to take place at Fitzharrys with staff moving between sites.
Tuesday 26.09.23	In school.	Working from home.	In school.	Working from home.	In school.
Wednesday 27.09.23	In school.	In school.	Working from home.	Working from home.	In school.
Thursday 28.09.23	In school.	Working from home.	Working from home.	In school.	In school.
Friday 29.09.23	Working from home.	In school.	In school.	Working from home.	In school.

We will ensure that we communicate which of these plans we are able to follow as soon as we receive our feedback from the DFE commissioned survey.

Thank you again for your patience during what I know has been a frustrating start to the year.

Yours sincerely

Alastair West
