The Governors of John Mason School are seeking to appoint an inspirational Headteacher, who will strategically drive the school forward into its next stage of development. John Mason School is an 11-18, providing a joint sixth form with Fitzharrys School, both part of Abingdon Learning Trust.

You will have:

- Big ideas on how to drive the school forward into the future in an inspirational yet empathetic way
- The ability to inspire and motivate teams as well as lead by example
- A strong understanding of school improvement
- Strong strategic 'big picture' leadership that consistently strives to gain the best for each and every student
- Excellent communication skills and a visible presence with all stakeholders
- Adept skills to challenge and support in equal measure
- The ability to set and deliver aspirational targets and high-quality innovative curriculum provision which meets the needs and interests of our students

We can offer:

- Wonderful students who are keen to learn
- Dedicated, hardworking and capable staff
- A proactive and supportive governing body
- The support of the Trust's executive and central team.

School visits will be taking place on:

- 27 February or 6 March at 9.00am
- 24 February or 3 March 11.15am
- 24 February or 3 March at 2.00pm
