ABINGDON LEARNING TRUST

JOHN MASON SCHOOL

Student Manager: Person Specification

Essential Skills and Qualities

- A desire to work with and to support young people
- An ability to remain calm under pressure, managing high-level emotional demands.
- A sense of humour
- An ability to work on your own initiative
- A flexible approach to work
- A team player
- IT literate
- Be well organised and able to manage time efficiently and to prioritise
- A good communicator
- Be patient, firm, tolerant, understanding, flexible

Desirable Skills and Qualities

Specific experience of working with challenging and/ or vulnerable young people eg: as a youth worker, counsellor, education welfare officer, children's services or member of a behaviour support team Desirable Qualifications/training Good literacy and numeracy skills Essential Knowledge/Skills • A desire to pursue a career in behaviour support Essential • Mollingness to participate in development and training opportunities • Ability to work consistently as part of a team, understanding school roles and responsibilities and your own position within these • Highly developed interpersonal skills and the ability to relate well to students and adults • Be well organised and able to manage time efficiently and to prioritise • A good communicator • Be patient, firm, tolerant, understanding; an empathy with, and an understanding of, young people • Initiative • Flexibility • A sense of humour • A calm and confident approach to the demands of a busy day, and the ability to work well under pressure. • Ability to manage high-level emotional demands and responsibility for the well-being and protection of students. • Respect for the state education system and all those who work so hard to make John Mason a thriving school.	Experience	Experience of working in a school or a knowledge of school systems	Essential
 Knowledge/Skills A desire to pursue a career in behaviour support Keyboard/computer skills Willingness to participate in development and training opportunities Ability to work consistently as part of a team, understanding school roles and responsibilities and your own position within these Highly developed interpersonal skills and the ability to relate well to students and adults Be well organised and able to manage time efficiently and to prioritise A good communicator Be patient, firm, tolerant, understanding; an empathy with, and an understanding of, young people Initiative Flexibility A sense of humour A calm and confident approach to the demands of a busy day, and the ability to work well under pressure. Ability for the well-being and protection of students. Respect for the state education system and all those who work so hard to make John Mason a thriving 		Specific experience of working with challenging and/ or vulnerable young people eg: as a youth worker, counsellor, education welfare officer, children's services	Desirable
 Keyboard/computer skills Willingness to participate in development and training opportunities Ability to work consistently as part of a team, understanding school roles and responsibilities and your own position within these Highly developed interpersonal skills and the ability to relate well to students and adults Be well organised and able to manage time efficiently and to prioritise A good communicator Be patient, firm, tolerant, understanding; an empathy with, and an understanding of, young people Initiative Flexibility A sense of humour A calm and confident approach to the demands of a busy day, and the ability to work well under pressure. Ability for the well-being and protection of students. Respect for the state education system and all those who work so hard to make John Mason a thriving 	Qualifications/training	Good literacy and numeracy skills	Essential
	Knowledge/Skills	 Keyboard/computer skills Willingness to participate in development and training opportunities Ability to work consistently as part of a team, understanding school roles and responsibilities and your own position within these Highly developed interpersonal skills and the ability to relate well to students and adults Be well organised and able to manage time efficiently and to prioritise A good communicator Be patient, firm, tolerant, understanding; an empathy with, and an understanding of, young people Initiative Flexibility A sense of humour A calm and confident approach to the demands of a busy day, and the ability to work well under pressure. Ability to manage high-level emotional demands and responsibility for the well-being and protection of students. Respect for the state education system and all those who work so hard to make John Mason a thriving 	Essential

Name:
Signed:
Date Agreed:	