Part-time Teacher of Social Sciences (Psychology Specialist) 0.7 FTE (other part-time arrangements considered)

Salary Grade: MPS/UPS (if post threshold)

Contract Type: Permanent. Part-time

Closing Date: Wednesday 21 June 2023 at 12 noon

Interview Date: Interviews on application. Should a suitable candidate be identified before the closing date, the vacancy may be closed early.

Start date: September 2023

With a growing Sixth Form and a history of strong outcomes for students, our Social Sciences provision is expanding. We are looking to appoint a new member of the team from September 2023. You will be able to teach Psychology up to A-level.

Over recent years we have been adding to our offer as a faculty, which now includes Sociology A level, Level 3 Applied Diploma in Criminology, Psychology A level and GCSE, Philosophy A level, Business A level and GCSE and Health and Social Care and experience of teaching any other subject within our faculty offer would be desirable.

The ideal candidate will be:

- Passionate about their subject(s); able to inspire students and help them to understand the real-world relevance of the social sciences.
- Committed to supporting students to achieve their goals, particularly our growing and diverse sixth form.
- Willing to contribute to a small but growing team with an increased range of subjects on offer.
- Interested in contributing to our key development goals: closing the gaps through high-quality literacy teaching, inclusive teaching practices and diversity throughout our curriculum.

In exchange, we offer you:

- The chance to join a friendly, supportive and reflective team
- Strong opportunities for ongoing professional development; through our Trust's comprehensive programme of professional development and generous financial support for external opportunities (e.g. MSc)
- The chance to work for a school where staff wellbeing and workload considerations are at the heart of decision-making.
- A highly inclusive approach to flexible working: speak to us about part-time or other needs.
